| Since the target group of the workshop turned out to be larger (59 people) than initially planned (30 people), two workshops were held on the same day and location. The attendees of this second event were 29 students (mostly female) of the Bachelor's Degree in Social Work at the Pablo Olavide | | | |

University, in Seville. The second workshop took place immediately after the first, in the same classroom.

The event was conducted in accordance with the developed workshop methodology, so as the first. It began with a presentation of the project and the facilitating team, as well as a warm-up dynamic to identify previous ideas of the attendees regarding youth participation in politics, the European Union and its role in the lives of young Spanish people.

Through group work, it was possible to identify the profile of young non-voters, possible reasons and emotions that accompany their decision, and strategies to develop an effective communication campaign. All groups agreed on identifying social networks as the most appropriate means to reach Spanish youth, especially through TikTok, YouTube and Instagram.

Likewise, during the workshop the students were informed of the possibility of participating in the video contest. Several people showed their interest in participating, motivated by the possibility of winning a study trip to Brussels.

Over the next few weeks they will be monitored to confirm that they make their policy proposals to the EU.
